

DATA PROTECTION POLICY

The data provided on this form will be transmitted to the marketing team of the “Land of Memory, in the footsteps of conflict at the origin of Europe” Interreg VA Grande Région Project, marketed by the Fédération du Tourisme de la Province de Liège (FTPL) located at 1, Place de la République française, 4000 Liège, Belgium. This transmission is required to enable the provision of the best response to your question(s) on the services offered and suggested tours of the “Land of Memory” destination targeted at groups and associations.

The data collected are used only for this precise purpose. They will only be retained during the processing of your request and they will then be deleted, unless you have requested the other service offered.

The fields marked with an asterisk (*) must be completed. Failure to complete these fields means that the FTPL will be unable to provide the information requested.

List of personal data collected:

email address:

Family name:

First (Given) name:

Postcode:

The email address, family name and first (given) name are the data required to be able to respond to your question(s), and the postcode is used for statistical purposes.

The data are stored in secure software files which can only be accessed by the FTPL employees in the website team and the “Land of Memory” marketing team via their personal logins and passwords.

In compliance with personal data protection regulations, you have the right to access data about you, to correct them, to recover them or to request their deletion by writing to the FTPL’s website team at 1, Place de la République française, 4000 Liège, Belgium, or by emailing ftpl@provincedeliege.be

Please note that the FTPL can retain your data for up to 72 hours after we receive your request to correct or delete them. This time period is necessary for the deletion of the data from our database.
